When the opportunity presented itself for us to sit down with one of the younger but impressive breweries in #SDBeer, and Sore Eye Cup champion, The Original 40 Brewing Co., we did not hesitate!

On a wonderful Wednesday night in the TapCraft Studio, we had the company of head brewer, Chris Gillogy and owner, Steve Billings to discuss how the first 7 months of OG 40 has been going.

We taste through several of their beers, talk about some upcoming additions to the menu, and have a grand old time hanging out with good friends!

We'll be launching a #29DayChallenge on Feb 1st to get you hyped for the return of Indie Beer Madness! Yep, we can't wait to celebrate #SDBeer with another good old bracket showdown. We'll also be using #RoadToMadness if you guys want to follow along! We'll be at a different brewery each day to let you know why we think they're awesome.

Get yourself a Chrispy Boi and feel the good times as you listen to this episode!
